Cancellation & Parent Feedback Policy

Cancellation: We understand that you occasionally will be unable to attend your scheduled appointment. When this happens, We ask that you notify our office as soon as possible, so that your appointment time will be available to another client. Unless it is an emergency, or you or your child become urgently sick, you need to provide 24 hours cancellation notice, or you will be charged the full fee for your session. We cannot assure you a rescheduled appointment in the same week.

Parent Feedback: In situations of separation or divorce within a family, it is this office's practice to meet for parent feedback sessions with both parents & their attorneys if necessary so that all parties are hearing the same information about their child. This gives parents the opportunity to understand and discuss their child's progress in therapy in an open environment where questions are encouraged.

I have read and I understand the policies stated above and agree to accept responsibility as described.
